- C15 A member may only be expelled by three fourths of the votes cast at a special general meeting called by the board.
- C15.1 The board must give the member at least one month's notice in writing of the general meeting. The notice to the members must set out the particulars of the complaint of conduct detrimental to the CLT and must request the member to attend the meeting to answer the complaint.
 - C15.2 At the general meeting called for this purpose the members shall consider the evidence presented by the board and by the member (if any). The meeting may take place without the attendance of the member.

- C15.3 If the resolution to expel the member is passed in accordance with this rule, the member shall immediately cease to be a member.

Annual general meeting

C16 The CLT shall hold a general meeting called the annual general meeting within six calendar months after the close of each of its financial years or such later date as may be permitted by law.

C17 The functions of the annual general meeting shall be:

C17.1 to receive the annual report which shall contain:

C17.1.1 the revenue accounts and balance sheets for the last accounting period;

C17.1.2 the auditor's report (if one is required by law) on those accounts and balance sheets;

C17.1.3 the board's report on the affairs of the CLT;

C17.2 subject to rules F3 and F4, to appoint the auditor (if one is required by law);

C17.3 to elect (or re-elect) board members if applicable;

C17.4 to transact any other general business of the CLT set out in the notice convening the meeting including any business that requires a special resolution.

Special general meetings

C18 All general meetings other than annual general meetings shall be special general meetings and shall be convened either:

C18.1 upon an order of the board; or

C18.2 upon a written requisition signed by one-tenth of the members (to a maximum of twenty-five but not less than three) stating the business for which the meeting is to be convened; or

C18.3 if within twenty-eight days after delivery of a requisition to the secretary a meeting is not convened, the members who have signed the requisition may convene a meeting.

C19 A special general meeting shall not transact any business that is not set out in the notice convening the meeting.

Calling a general meeting

C20 All general meetings shall be convened by at least fourteen clear days' written notice posted or delivered or sent by fax or electronic communication to every member at the address, fax number or electronic communication address given in the register of members. The notice shall state whether the meeting is an annual general meeting or special general meeting, the time, date and place of the meeting, and the business for which it is convened.

C21 Any accidental failure to get any notice to any member shall not invalidate the proceedings at that general meeting. A notice or communication sent by post to a member at their address shown in the register of members shall be deemed to have arrived two days after being posted and any sent by fax or electronic communication shall be deemed to have been served when received provided that in respect of a fax it is legible and in respect of an electronic communication, it is in a readable form.

- C22 Seventy-five per cent of members may agree, by consenting in writing, or by electronic communication, to a general meeting being held with less notice than required by rule C20.

Proceedings at general meetings

- C23 Before any general meeting can start its business there must be a quorum present. A quorum is one-tenth of all members, with a minimum number of five and a maximum number of 25.
- C24 A meeting held as a result of a member's requisition will be dissolved if too few members are present half an hour after the meeting is scheduled to begin.
- C25 All other general meetings with too few members will be adjourned to the same day, at the same time and at the registered office in the following week. If less than the number of members set out in rule C23 are present within half an hour of the time the adjourned meeting is scheduled to have started, those members present shall carry out the business of the meeting.
- C26 The chair of any general meeting can:
- C26.1 take the business of the meeting in any order that the chair may decide; and
 - C26.2 adjourn the meeting if the majority of the members present in person or by proxy agree. An adjourned meeting can only deal with matters adjourned from the original meeting. An adjourned meeting is a continuation of the original meeting. The date of all resolutions passed is the date they were passed (as opposed to the date of the original meeting). There is no need to give notice of an adjournment or to give notice of the business to be transacted.
- C27 At all general meetings of the CLT, the chair of the board shall preside. If there is no such chair or if the chair is not present or is unwilling to act, the vice chair (if any) shall chair the meeting, failing which the members present shall elect a member to chair the meeting. The person elected shall be a member of the board if one is present and willing to act.

Proxies

- C28 Any member entitled to attend and vote at a general meeting may appoint another person, whether or not a member, as their proxy to attend and vote on their behalf. A proxy can be appointed by delivering a written appointment which may be electronic, to the registered office, or such other place as may be selected by the board and stated in the meeting notice, at least two days before the date of the meeting at which the proxy is authorised to vote. It must be signed or approved and sent by the member or a duly authorised attorney. Any proxy form delivered late shall be invalid. Any question as to the validity of a proxy shall be determined by the chair of the meeting whose decision shall be final.

Voting

- C29 Subject to the provisions of these rules or of any statute, a resolution put to the vote at a general meeting shall, except where a ballot is demanded or directed, be decided upon a show of hands.
- C30 On a show of hands every member present in person and on a ballot every member present in person or by proxy shall have one vote. In the case of an equality of votes the chair of the meeting shall have a second or casting vote.

- C31 Unless a ballot is demanded (either before or immediately after the vote), a declaration by the chair that a resolution on a show of hands has been carried or lost, unanimously or by a particular majority, is conclusive. An entry made to that effect in the book containing the minutes of the proceedings of the CLT shall be conclusive evidence of that fact.
- C32 Any question as to the acceptability of any vote whether tendered personally or by proxy, shall be determined by the chair of the meeting, whose decision shall be final.
- C33 A ballot on a resolution may be demanded by any three members at a meeting (in person or by proxy) or directed by the chair (and such demand or direction may be withdrawn). A ballot may be demanded or directed after a vote on the show of hands, and in that case the resolution shall be decided by the ballot.
- C34 A ballot shall be taken at such time and in such manner as the chair shall direct. The result of such a ballot shall be deemed to be the resolution of the CLT in general meeting.
- C35 A resolution in writing signed or approved by letter, fax or by electronic communication by or on behalf of the requisite majority of the members, for the time being, entitled to vote on the relevant resolution shall be as valid and effective as a resolution passed at a properly called and constituted meeting of members provided that a copy of the proposed resolution has been delivered in accordance with these rules to all members and the requisite majority of members referred to in rule C36 have delivered their agreement in accordance with these rules. Such resolution when signed or approved may comprise more than one document in the same form, each signed or approved, by one or more members.
- C36 For the purposes of rule C35 the requisite majorities are:
- C36.1 in the case of an ordinary resolution, a simple majority of members who would have been entitled to vote had the resolution been proposed at a properly called and constituted general meeting;
- C36.2 in the case of a resolution requiring a two-thirds majority of members, at least two-thirds of the members who would have been entitled to vote had the resolution been proposed at a properly called and constituted general meeting; or
- C36.3 in the case of a resolution requiring a three-quarters majority of members, at least three-quarters of the members who would have been entitled to vote had the resolution been proposed at a properly called and constituted general meeting.

PART D

THE BOARD

Functions

- D1 The CLT shall have a board (in these rules referred to as “the board”) who shall direct the affairs of the CLT in accordance with its objects and rules and ensure that its functions are properly performed. Amongst its functions shall be to:

- D1.3 satisfy itself as to the integrity of financial information, approving each year's budget and business plan and annual accounts prior to publication;
- D1.4 establish, oversee and review annually a framework of delegation and systems of internal control;
- D1.5 establish and oversee a risk management framework in order to safeguard the assets of the CLT;
- D1.6 take appropriate advice;
- D1.7 ensure that at any time when the CLT is registered with the regulator as a provider of social housing, that it takes account of any obligation imposed upon the CLT by the regulator in exercise of its powers;
- D1.8 satisfy itself that the CLT's affairs are conducted in accordance with generally accepted standards of performance and propriety; and
- D1.9 establish and operate a performance appraisal system for the board, the chair and individual board members.

Composition of the board

D2

- D2.1 The board shall consist of between five and twelve board members (excluding co-optees). If the number of board members shall fall below the number required for a full board, the remaining board members may continue to act. The board will use all reasonable endeavours to find replacements as soon as possible.
- D2.2 No employee may be appointed (or co-opted) to the board if, following their appointment (or co-option), more than one-third of the board will at that time be employees.

D3

Except for co-optees and employees only members can be board members.

D4

- D4.1 The board shall make available the obligations (including the expected standards of conduct) of every board member (including co-optees) to the board and to the CLT. The board shall review and may amend the obligations of board members from time to time.
- D4.2 No board member (including co-optees) may act as such until they have signed and delivered to the board a statement, confirming that they will meet their obligations (including the expected standards of conduct) to the board and to the CLT. The board may vary the form of statement from time to time.
- D4.3 Any board member who has not signed such statement without good cause within one month of election or appointment to the board or, if later, within one month of adoption of these rules, shall immediately cease to be a board member.

D5

- D5.1 The board may appoint co-optees to serve on the board on such terms as the board resolves and may remove such co-optees. A co-optee may act in all respects as a board member, but they

- cannot take part in the deliberations nor vote on the election of officers of the CLT nor any matter directly affecting members.
- D5.2 Not more than five co-optees can be appointed to the board or to any committee at any one time.
- D6 For the purposes of these rules and of the Act, a co-optee is not included in the expression “board member” or “member of the board”.
- D7
- D7.1 Board members shall be elected in accordance with a procedure set out by the board (who may vary or amend it from time to time). The board may set selection criteria for candidates wishing to stand for election as board members and these may provide for prospective candidates to be approved by the board before they become eligible to stand for election as board members.
- D7.2 The chosen candidates shall be put forward to the relevant annual general meeting as the candidates for election as board members. The members shall vote on the election of the candidates put forward at the relevant annual general meeting. In doing so, the members shall use their reasonable endeavours to ensure that the successful candidates have the requisite skills and experience as may be requested by the board. Each successful candidate shall become a board member and serve for a term of three years, expiring at the annual general meeting in their third year of office.
- D7.3 At every annual general meeting each board member who has served their fixed term shall retire from office. Any board member who retires from office at an annual general meeting under this rule D7 shall be eligible for re-election subject to any restrictions contained in these rules.
- D7.4 Any board member retiring under rule D7.3 having completed nine years’ continuous service on either the board of the CLT and/or the board of a group member shall not be eligible for re-election until the next following annual general meeting or, if later, for at least twelve months after completing such service.
- D7.5 A vacancy for a board member arising because there were insufficient candidates elected at the relevant annual general meeting, or because of a retirement or for whatever other reason may be filled by the board and such replacement shall hold office for the remainder of the period of office of his/her predecessor. If a board member retires at an annual general meeting in accordance with these rules and the meeting does not fill the vacancy, the retiring board member shall, if willing, be deemed to have been reappointed unless a resolution for his/her reappointment is put to the meeting and lost.
- D8 No one can become or remain a board member or co-optee at any time if:
- D8.1 they are disqualified from acting as a director of a company or society for any reason; or
- D8.2 they have been convicted of an indictable offence which is not, or cannot be, spent; or
- D8.3 a composition is made with that person’s creditors generally in satisfaction of that person’s debts; or

- D8.4 they are not a member (unless they are a co-optee or employee of the CLT or any other body whose accounts must be consolidated with those of the CLT); or
- D8.5 they have absented themselves from three consecutive meetings of the board in one rolling twelve-month period without special leave of absence from the board; or
- D8.6 a registered medical practitioner who is treating that person gives a written opinion to the CLT stating that that person has become physically or mentally incapable of acting as a board member and may remain so for more than three months; or
- D8.7 they are an employee and their contract of employment is terminated; or
- D8.8 they are a resident and are in material or serious breach of their tenancy agreement or lease and fail to rectify the breach within a reasonable timeframe as agreed with the CLT, or are subject to any of the following types of court order: anti social behaviour order, anti social behaviour injunction, demoted tenancy, or closure order;
- D8.9 they are a specifically elected or appointed resident board member and cease to be a resident;

and any board member who at any time ceases to qualify under this rule shall immediately cease to be a board member.

D9 A board member may be removed from the board:

- D9.1 by a two-thirds majority at a general meeting; or
- D9.2 by a resolution passed by two-thirds of the board members, excluding the board member subject of the proposed removal and excluding co-optees and employees, provided the following conditions are satisfied:
 - D9.2.1 at least fourteen days notice of the proposed resolution has been given to all board members; and
 - D9.2.2 the notice sets out in writing the alleged breach(es) of the member's obligations provided pursuant to rule D4.1; and
 - D9.2.3 the board is satisfied that the allegation(s) is or are true.

D10 Whenever the number of board members and co-optees is less than permitted by these rules, the board may appoint a further board member in addition to the board's power to co-opt. Any board member so appointed shall retire at the next annual general meeting.

Terms of office and election to the board

D11 In every notice for an annual general meeting the board shall state those board members continuing in office and those candidates intending to offer themselves for election.

D12 Each board member elected under rule D7 shall be elected for a fixed term of office expiring at the conclusion of an annual general meeting (each a "fixed term"). The fixed term shall be for a term of three annual general meetings unless the board has set a lower number of annual general meetings for the relevant board member on their election. No fixed term shall be set which would cause the relevant board member to serve beyond their ninth consecutive annual general meeting.

D13

D13.1 Board members will be elected by members pursuant to rule D7.

D13.2 If at elections for board members the number of candidates for election as board members does not exceed the number of vacancies on the board the chair shall declare those candidates to have been duly elected. If the number of candidates exceeds the number of vacancies the meeting shall elect the board members by ballot in such a manner as the chair directs and in accordance with the procedures set under rule D7.

D13.3 In an election for candidates wishing to be board members at a general meeting every member present in person or by proxy shall have one vote for every vacancy but shall not give more than one vote to any one candidate.

D14

D14.1 Any candidate for election to the board as a board member under rule D7 shall submit a written statement to the CLT in such form as the board from time to time determines. It shall set out the candidate's full name, address, and occupation, whether or not they are a resident and the reasons for their suitability to be a board member.

D14.2 In addition, a candidate who is not retiring as a board member must be nominated in writing by a member.

D14.3 The statement and nomination shall be delivered to the CLT in accordance with the procedures set by the board under rule D714.1.

Quorum for the board

D15

D15.1 Subject to the provisions of rule D15.2 three board members shall form a quorum. The board may determine a higher number or impose additional requirements.

D15.2 The board is quorate if the majority of the board members present are not residents or employees of the CLT.

D15.3 If the number and make up of board members falls below the number and make up necessary for a quorum, the remaining board members may continue to act as the board for a maximum period of six months and the provisions of rule D15.2 shall be suspended for that time. At the end of that time the only power that the board may exercise shall be to bring the number of board members up to that required by these rules.

Board members' interests

D16

No board member, co-optee or member of a committee shall have any financial interest in any contract or other transaction with the CLT or with any other group member, or be granted a benefit by the CLT, unless such interest or benefit:

D16.1 is expressly permitted by these rules or under any determination or guidance by the Regulator from time to time; or
